Broadway Blast 2011

Broadway Blast 2011

A Performing Arts Summer Camp at the Rogers Little Theater
July 5-8 & 11-15 from 8:30-3 p.m. Camp performances: July 15-16 at 7 p.m.

Broadway Blast 2011 launches a new Youth Enrichment Series at Rogers Little Theater. The two-week camp component provides an exciting opportunity for students to be a part of the rich history of American Musical Theater with time-honored songs like "Babes in Arms," "Our Time" and "Give My Regards to Broadway."

This performing arts learning experience synthesizes vocal skills, choreography and acting into two lively theatrical performances that also incorporate the exciting new genre of puppetry direct from Broadway. Students will create the storyline and develop their characters with the help of qualified area teaching artists Jason Suel, Sean Phillip Mabrey and Jenee Grassle.

Space is limited so sign up today to secure your camper's spot in this exciting RLT production. Intended for ages 8-18, students will be able to work with others in their own age groups as well as learn from more experienced young performers. This two-week camp culminates with two performances on the RLT stage, Friday and Saturday, July 15-16 at 7 p.m.

Early Bird Signup on or before June 15, $185; Signup after June 15, $200.
(Camp T-shirt included)

* Families that enroll two or more of their children receive a 10 percent discount. Payment for discounts must be made at the RLT Box Office.

Please provide your children with appropriate dance shoes (no flip-flops or sandals), and please provide sack lunches and drink for your camper. Dress rehearsals will be during the day.

Check back for updates on other upcoming opportunities for youth that are part of the RLT Youth Enrichment Series. Or contact the theater at 631-8988 or boxoffice@rogerslittletheater.org for more information.
